I have no issue alerting them to the request, but It is up to ring.com to assert any statutory exemption to the Public Records Law. I am not sure what type of proprietary information would be in the e-mails, but let me know if they respond.

Also, make sure that the Clerk's Office is aware of the request.

Thanks!

Subject: North Palm Beach Police Public Records Request

Good morning Kari this is Sergeant Lou Pearson with the North Palm Beach Police Department. I wanted to make you aware of a public records request that we received yesterday as it pertains to your company. Before we fulfilled this request, we wanted to make sure that your company was aware as we did not want to release any information that you deem proprietary and not readily available. Not sure if you wanted to confer with your legal department as how to proceed but we wanted to ensure that you were aware of this request. Thanks

Subject: Custodian of Public Records for the North Palm Beach Police Department (Reference Number PHJA-LE-0001-0225-A)

Please accept this email as a public records request made by Public Housing Justice Association, LLC, (hereinafter, "PHJA"), to the North Palm Beach Police Department. If you are not the Custodian of Public Records for the North Palm Beach Police Department, please immediately forward this public records request to the Custodian of Public Records for your agency.

PHJA seeks the following public records:

All emails created, received or maintained by the North Palm Beach Police Department utilizing email addresses containing "@ring.com".

As proscribed by Section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes (2019), PHJA wishes to receive the requested records in their original electronic format. See Miami-Dade County v. Professional Law Enforcement Association, 997 So. 2d 1289 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009). If the North Palm Beach Police Department anticipates that the production of the requested records will require payment by PHJA, please provide a detailed and itemized written estimate prior to production of the requested records.

When corresponding with PHJA regarding this public records request, please use Reference Number PHJA-LE-0001-0225-A and send all communications to PHJA-LE-0001@phja.online.

Thank you.
